

Response Summary:

Safeguarding - End of course Assessment

Note: Under each question, you will find a direct link to the relevant chapter of the online course.

The pass score is 70%

your result will be emailed to you on submission.

Q1. Your details

First name:	Bernard
Last name:	Hernandez
Email address:	b.hernandez-perez@imperial.ac.uk
CID (Please ensure you provide a correct CID so that your training can be recorded):	00824551
Department/Division:	Department of Medicine

Q17. Where do you work?

- Infectious Disease

Q3. "Safeguarding is not my responsibility because we have Designated Safeguarding Leads at the College."
Chapter Ref: What is Safeguarding?

- False

Q4. Safeguarding is only relevant for College roles that work with children.
Chapter Ref: Safeguarding basics

- False

Q5. The safeguarding of children includes young people aged 16-17.
Chapter Ref: Safeguarding basics

- True

Q6. If a person starts to disclose abuse, you must not agree to keep the issue a secret between you even if this means that they discontinue the disclosure.
Chapter Ref: Reporting or directing to support

- True

Q7. The Care Act 2014 includes physical, sexual, psychological, financial and discriminatory abuse but does not cover neglect.
Chapter Ref: Forms of abuse

- False

Q8. Abuse may cover single or repeated acts of harm or exploitation and is always perpetrated with deliberate intent.
Chapter Ref: Abuse - Forms of abuse

- False

Q9. Confidentiality and informed consent are central principles relating to disclosure. In this context, which of the following statements is correct?

Chapter Ref: Reporting or directing to support - Breaching confidentiality

- You can share information without consent only if there is a legitimate reason for doing so

Q10. You need to have proof that abuse is taking place before reporting your suspicions.

Chapter Ref: Forms of abuse

- False

Q11. An individual discloses something to you that indicates there is an immediate risk to their safety. What should you do? Select the correct option and then click Submit.

Chapter Ref: Reporting or directing to support

- Call the emergency services

Q12. Anyone with a history of mental or physical health difficulties is classed as an adult at risk.

Chapter Ref: Safeguarding basics

- True

Q13. My role in relation to Prevent is to:

Chapter Ref: The College's approach

- Share welfare concerns

Q14. A low level concern should be raised:

Chapter Ref: Reporting or directing to support

- Whenever I have a concern about conduct, no matter how small the concern

Q15.

Low level concerns:

Chapter Ref: Reporting or directing to support

- may arise because of an individual's unintentional behaviour

Click "submit" to validate your replies.

---

Scoring

- Score: 11

---

Embedded Data:

Score	11
percentScore	85